

The Vauxhall Band
Volunteer Management Policy

Date of Last Review - 1st May 2025

This is the Volunteer Management Policy of The Vauxhall Band.

Applicability

This policy applies to all volunteers (“you”/“your”).

All volunteers must:

- Ensure that you are aware of and comply with the charity’s policies.
- Undertake any necessary training for your role.
- Listen to and respect other volunteers, beneficiaries and other stakeholders.
- Promote relationships that are based on openness, honesty, trust and respect.
- Treat everyone fairly and without prejudice or discrimination.
- Ensure language is appropriate and not offensive or discriminatory.
- Ensure any equipment is used safely and for its intended purpose.
- Challenge any unacceptable behaviour and report any breaches of this Code of Conduct or any concerns without delay to a trustee.
- Report any allegations/suspensions of abuse.
- Respect everyone’s right to personal privacy and ensure that any personal information is kept secure and not disclosed.
- Volunteers are not obligated to work at specific times, but if you commit to doing something and are unable to, ensure that the charity is made aware as soon as possible.

You must not:

- Allow concerns or allegations to go unreported.
- Develop inappropriate relationships such as contact with children or vulnerable people that is not a part of the work of the Charity or agreed with the trustees.
- Share your personal contact details (mobile number, email or address) or have contact with a beneficiary or vulnerable person via a personal social media account.
- Make sarcastic, insensitive, derogatory or sexually suggestive comments or gestures to or in front of anyone.
- Act in a way that can be perceived as threatening or intrusive.
- Make inappropriate promises to children and young people, particularly in relation to confidentiality.
